

Bexley Interfaith Forum

21st June 2018
Meeting update

On 21 June 2018, Our Lady of the Angels hosted Bexley Interfaith Forum meeting. The topic of our discussion was PRAYER. Br Martin welcomed leaders of many faith traditions in Bexley. The participants included:

- Christ Church Erith, Christ Church Bexleyheath and St Paulinus Crayford (Church of England - Christian)
- Crayford Mosque (Islam)
- Guru Nanak Darbar Sikh Temple in Belvedere (Sikhism)
- Representative of Bahá'í Faith
- Bexleyheath and Welling Methodist Churches (Christian)
- Our Lady of the Angels Roman Catholic Church (Christian)
- Catford and Bromley Synagogue (Judaism)
- Queen Street Baptism Church in Erith
- Police Officers from Bexley Metropolitan Police

We heard perspectives on Prayer from the different faith traditions - Islam from Imam Hafiz Rahman, Christian/Roman Catholic from Brother Martin (Parish Priest at Our Lady of the Angels Erith), Sikhism from Kulvinder Singh and Judaism from Gerald Rose. The representative from the Bahá'í Faith gave an impromptu talk on prayer also.

The next meeting of the Bexley Interfaith Forum will be held on Thursday 27th September starting at 7.30pm. Venue to be advised. Please reserve this date in your diaries.
